Taiwan-America Student Conference Cancellation and Refund Policy

Delegates who decide to cancel after the confirmation deposit must provide an official notification listing the reasons for cancellation in an email sent to:

tasc.recruit.us@gmail.com

The Delegate is responsible for the notification. The Delegate and/or any institution paying on the behalf of the Delegate are responsible for all the program fees until the official notification is received by TASC directly from the Delegate. It is the Delegate's responsibility to notify any institution paying the fee on his/her behalf for the cancellation.

TASC guarantees space in the program for the participant upon the payment of the non-refundable Confirmation Deposit. Cancellation after the Confirmation Deposit is effective from the date the official notification is received by TASC. The Delegate will continue to accumulate non-recoverable costs based on the chart below until official notification is received:

Cancellation Period	Penalty
50 days or more before the start of program	Deposit
36-49 days before the start of program	40% of program fee (including deposit)
22-35 days before the start of program	60% of program fee (including deposit)
8-21 days before the start of program	75% of program fee (including deposit)
7 days or less before start of program	Full program fee (including deposit)

I understand the Cancellation and Refund Policy and accept its conditions.
