We hope that throughout this year's TASC both the delegates and EC's uphold the values of TASC. We ask that in addition to upholding the values of TASC that you are:

- Considerate of your fellow delegates
- Prompt and dressed presentably
- Engaged by asking questions and sharing your input
- Visible during all activities (camera on)

Throughout TASC we strive to have all delegates be heard, if at any point you would like to submit anonymous feedback you may do so here.

We ask that you feel free to speak up when something makes you uncomfortable or causes you concern.

What is a Round Table?

What is a Round Table?

Each RT is comprised of both American and Taiwanese delegates and covers a different topic area. This year each RT is based on one of the UN's Sustainable Development Goals. During RT discussions delegates will have the opportunity to

- hone in one focal issue,
- share their own perspectives and expertise, and
- develop an action prototype to address the identified issue.

During the Mock Final Forum, July 19th TST / July 18th, each RT will have the opportunity to share progress on their action prototype and receive helpful suggestions from other delegates and ECs. (10~15 minute presentation with 10 minutes of Q/A)

During the Final Forum, each RT will have the opportunity to present their final action prototype to an audience consisting of TASC alumni, Conference Speakers, and others.

Round Table Expectations

- Inclusive. Representative of all delegates in RT's input and hard work. TASC wants each delegate to contribute and be heard to grow as global change makers.
- Clear Goal. Scope and identify an issue within RT topic and create a specific goal for your Action Prototype.
- Plausible Action. Can be in the form of a website, an app, a startup pitch, a movement, etc.
- Self-Led. Structure of RT discussions will be left to the discretion of the delegates. However, steps should be made each meeting to keep Action Prototype moving forward. ECs will be available for support.

Final Action Prototype should include:

- Journey to identified issue (with a visual aid such as flowchart and mind map), background on chosen issue, present your goal, brief description of actions, reflection
